Giulia Marzetti

A chemical engineer by training, Giulia has worked internationally as consultant and project manager for energy storage and electrification of transport. Previously, she has worked as Project Officer managing a large portfolio of Horizon2020 projects in the field of next generation batteries and sustainable transport technologies.

Currently, Giulia is a Policy Officer in the Industrial Transformation Unit working on the Twin green and digital transition in the Horizon Europe WorkProgramme.