

Standardisation and digital transformation: the challenges for sustainable innovation

The aim of the speech is to illustrate the main national, european and international standardization and pre-standardization activities in support of digital transformation. The speech will concern the several topics: industry 4.0, artificial intelligence, quantum technologies, ICT aspects of the circular economy.