

Greta Bonetto

Master's degree in Industrial Biotechnology and PhD in Molecular Sciences at the University of Padua. Post-doc Researcher at the European Institute of Oncology in Milan. Post-graduate training on patenting issues, in particular as regards the chemical-biotechnological field. Significant work experience at the PatLib of Vicenza, as a Patent Information Specialist, specialized in training / information services on Intellectual Property (IP) and in patent prior and trademark searching. Subsequent experience as an Italian Trainee Trademark Attorney in an IP consultancy firm. Nowadays Knowledge Transfer Manager at the Ca' Foscari University specialized in identifying the knowledge holders within the University, prior art searching in patent databases, fostering valorization of research findings and supporting relationships between researchers, patent attorney and company representatives.