

Olga Chybová, MSc, is specialised in Envi-Affairs Management and environmental issues focused on textile industry (Health & Safety, RSLs, legislation, waste water, waste management, circular economy) and in testing of textiles; experienced in work within international R&D projects.

Vice-President and member of the board of the Czech Society of Textile Chemists and Colourists.