

Stefania Dal Corso

Sustainable Development Manager

Head of Centrocot's sustainable development service, she supervises companies in the areas of certification, declarations of conformity and training on sustainability and chemical safety issues. With a specialist background in pure chemistry, she has spent several years conducting research and testing in the environmental, textile, pharmaceutical and cosmetic sectors. She holds training courses for technicians and webinars on environmental sustainability and chemical safety and is Lead Auditor STeP by OEKO-TEX®, Auditor of the certification standards GRS - Global Recycle Standard, RCS - Recycled Claim Standard, GOTS - Global Organic Textile Standard and OCS - Organic Content Standard and European Flax®; she is a qualified trainer of the Academy ZDHC - Zero Discharge of Hazardous Chemicals.