

Maria Luisa Grilli, PhD, is researcher at ENEA, the Italian National Agency for New Technologies, Energy and Sustainable Economic Development. Actually, her main research topics are design, fabrication (by PVD techniques) and characterization of optical interference coatings for laser and space applications, R&D of thin films for solar cells, optoelectronic devices and membranes for CO₂ capture.

She is actually Chair of the COST INNOVATORS' GRANT "ITHACA" and ENEA representative of the EU projects "ChemPGM" (Marie-Curie Rise) and "MONAMIX" (ERAMIN2). She is author of more than 100 papers in the Materials Science field and her current Citation Index is 21 (Scopus).