

Valeria Saggio is a postdoctoral researcher at the University of Vienna, where she also obtained her PhD under the supervision of Prof. Philip Walther. Her research has a strong experimental focus on quantum computing with photonic platforms. She has worked on demonstrating efficient detection of multipartite entanglement in photonic cluster states, as well as on applications of quantum mechanics to reinforcement learning. Her research interests include working with bulk as well as integrated optics.