

Roberto Vannucci

Research and innovation manager

Centrocot - Centro Tessile Cotoniero e Abbigliamento Spa (Italy)

e-mail: roberto.vannucci@centrocot.it

Master Degree in Mechanical Engineering, in Centrocot since 2002, actually as Multisectoral Research & Innovation Department Manager.

He is senior expert on R&D projects and services for development, support and technological transfer to companies. He is also a trainer and representative on behalf of Centrocot within national and international networks.

He has several years of experience in management and implementation of complex projects regarding innovation products/processes for textile and clothing companies, acquiring also specific skills in financing instruments, both national and European. As Project Manager responsible for Centrocot he participated in more than 15 projects funded by European Programmes and more than 10 national projects.

In particular, in recent years he has been involved in several circular economy projects, developing an on-line platform for industrial symbiosis (M3P Material Match Making Platform), applying to recycle textile waste and promoting circularity of textile parts in automotive sector.

Recently he was nominated in the Scientific Committee of the Cluster "Made in Italy".