

Research Assistant Gizem Yanalak was born in 1990 in Kütahya, Turkey. She completed his secondary education in Pendik High School (2008) in İstanbul. Afterwards she received the B.Sc. degree in Chemistrty from Selcuk University (2015), with the Erasmus experience in Prague. She got her M.Sc. degree in Chemistry (2018) from the same university. Her academic career started as a Research Assistant at Department of Biochemistry, Selcuk University in 2018 and it is still go on. Her main research interests focus on photocatalysis, photoelectrochemistry, hydrogen evolution, and liquid-liquid interfaces. She has many international journal papers and conference proceedings as a co-author.